

Basic info for an accident compensation claim

Personal injuries are serious issues that can include permanent disability and possibly even death. Victims need to pursue an accident compensation claim to obtain financial damages to pay for their loss of income and to compensate for the pain and suffering caused. In order to ensure that victims receive the damages they deserve, it is imperative that they find a qualified and experienced accident claim company. If you or someone you know has been hurt, it's imperative that you know how to choose the right no win no fee solicitor.

Personal injury compensation comes in two forms, known as general damages and special damages.

- General damages are compensation awarded for your injuries, for the pain and suffering and any disability or loss of amenity.
- Special damages are all actual financial losses and out of pocket expenses which can be calculated and which have been lost as a result of the accident.

The level of compensation for general damages depends on the medical evidence. A prediction for the amount can only be made when an independent medical report has been assessed.

For this service most accident claim companies will work for you on a "no win no fee" basis. On rare occasions some companies might also provide a "win no fee" service as well.(As their charges are paid by the Defendants' Insurers who pay your Accident compensation.)

Accident claim companies now work under a "Pre-action Protocol". The protocol specifies time limits for a claim with an insurance company and its introduction has sped up the process of completing a personal injury claim. It has resulted in many claims being processed in months, as opposed to years.

If you or someone you know have been injured, find an accident claim company right away so you can receive the financial compensation that you are entitled to. Personal injury is a serious matter and you should be taken care of financially, physically and emotionally.
