About the Author

Global Domains International is a state of the art website, domain and hosting service that includes a free unlimited income opportunity that does the selling for you!

Global Domains International, otherwise known as GDI or Website.ws, began in 1999 when owners Michael Reed and Alan Ezeir contracted with the tiny island nation of Samoa, located in the South Pacific, to sell their .ws extensions for them. The entrepreneurs choose this .ws extension because it could stand for "web site", and Samoa was interested in taking their .ws extension globally. GDI set up a 12 year contract with 1rst right to continue with the Samoans, so we expect GDI to be around for a very long time!
