The resort is fast turning into one of the most up-and-coming spa and ski destinations, and looks set to carve an impressive name for itself in both the holiday and investment market. Located on the edges of Val d'Illeze, the Thermes Parc has access to the infamous Portes du Soleil ski area. It also acts as a gateway to the world renowned mountain ranges of the Valais. With such a sought after situation at the heart of one of Switzerland's, indeed the world's, most popular mountain sports capitals, it is no wonder that this is becoming the ultimate destination for savvy property investors with vision.

As well as the spa facilities, property owners will have unlimited use of the 4 star hotel complex, aquatic park, and shopping mall which are also conveniently located on site.

If you are looking to buy property as an investment to generate rental income, you have a wealth of potential tenants including skiers and those on the look out for a spot of pampering. You can also market your property as a luxurious base for incentive trips and corporate events, as the Thermes Parc resort is only 90 minutes from the popular business airport of Geneva which is linked to many of the UK's local as well as larger airports.
