

Buying Wholesale Condoms Can Save You Money While Keeping You Safe

You might think that you have to be in the business of selling condoms in order to purchase wholesale condoms. But, the truth is that you do not! Although "wholesale" is usually used to describe the amount that distributors charge to businesses, there are some companies out there that offer wholesale condoms to the every day consumer. We here at CondomMan are just one example!

Another common misconception about wholesale condoms is in regard to the amount of condoms you need to purchase in order to get a great price. Typically, when you think of "wholesale," you think of having to purchase more than you really need of an item. After all, if wholesale is meant for businesses, that means you need to purchase hundreds of wholesale condoms, right?

While it is true that you aren't going to be able to purchase just one or two wholesale condoms at a time, we allow you to purchase as little as just 12 condoms at a time. Of course, if you would rather buy 500 condoms wholesale at a time, we certainly have you covered. And, since condoms can usually last for up to about five years, you just might find yourself needing that many condoms during that time period.

In addition, you can save a significant amount of money per condom when you purchase your condoms wholesale, in large quantity. In fact, purchasing one 500 count pack of wholesale condoms from CondomMan is likely to cost you less than buying a couple dozen individual condoms from the drugstore!

Of course, we are bias to the deals on wholesale condoms that we provide. After all, we are in the business to provide condoms at the absolute best price. You can be confident that you are getting the best price on wholesale condoms when you shop through our online store. In order to make you feel that confidence, we offer a guarantee that we provide the lowest prices. So, if you happen to find someone else that is selling wholesale condoms for less, we will happily match their prices.

We aren't all about condoms, though. You can also find some other products to help increase your sexual pleasure. For example, we offer vibrating rings as well as a variety of personal lubricants that help enhance your pleasure whether you are using a condom or not. Some of these lubricants go beyond just slicking things up, so check out what we have to offer.

So, we hope you enjoy your shopping experience as you browse through the products we offer here at CondomMan. In addition, we hope you take the time to read through some of our articles. Not only do we want to help you have the best sex possible, we also want you to stay safe. There are a lot of scary diseases out there, and using condoms each and every time you have sex will help prevent you from catching them. Until next time, stay safe and have fun!
